AIG Across Country Borders

When you own multiple residences, it may seem prudent to use local resources for insurance. However, insurance considerations can become much more complex as you cross country borders. In the event of a claim, you may find that your client's coverage doesn't respond as expected. Fortunately, AIG can help.

How it works

AIG Private Client Group, a division of the member companies of American International Group, Inc. (AIG), is pleased to offer a program designed expressly for multinational personal insurance customers. If your client is a U.S.-based policyholder with AIG Private Client Group, consistent coverage can be extended to homes abroad as well.*

AIG can work in concert with you to strengthen your clients' protection and streamline the process. This consolidated approach makes it much easier to ensure your clients have ample protection and claim support regardless of location.

Access to world-class loss prevention expertise

When you entrust AIG to safeguard your clients' homes and belongings outside the U.S., your clients can still benefit from the expertise of their highly experienced risk management specialists. AIG is at your clients' service to ensure they have the right amount of coverage in place and are doing everything possible to maximize family and property safety.

Consummate claims support, wherever you are

AIG's deeply experienced U.S. claims team will coordinate local assistance 24/7 and ensure that your clients' preferences and discretion remain top of mind. AIG employs thousands of claims professionals worldwide who will be at your clients' disposal if ever needed.

Additional protection to complement a global lifestyle

AIG recognize the objects and experiences that turn your clients' houses into "homes." Their private collections policy features comprehensive, worldwide coverage for art, jewelry, collector cars, wine and more. Those who own yachts can rely on AIG to protect the vessel knowledgeably and align coverage with their cruising plans. And wherever their travels take them, AIG's personal excess liability protection will follow. In addition, AIG Private Client Group customers who insure homes in the U.S. have complimentary access to global travel assistance services facilitated by AIG Travel.

"A client came to me with a complex problem: his global personal insurance portfolio was literally all over the map. Working closely with AIG, I was able to provide a single carrier and single-broker solution that streamlined his coverage into an organized package that finally made sense. He could also rest easier knowing that all of his property and liability insurance needs were being looked after in a holistic way."
