- 3. Preliminary reports must indicate the height of the water, to the nearest foot, above or below the first floor level of the risk involved.

Privacy Act Statement

The information requested is necessary to process the subject loss. The authority to collect the information is Title 42, U.S. Code, Section 4001 to 4028. It is voluntary on your part to furnish the information. However, omission of an item may preclude processing of the form. The information will not be disclosed outside of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, except to the servicing agent, acting as the government's fiscal agent; to claims adjusters to enable them to confirm coverage and the location of insured property; to certain Federal, State, and Local Government agencies for determining eligibility for benefits and for verification of agencies for acquisition and relocation-related projects, consistent with the National Flood Insurance Program and consistent with the routine uses described in the program's system of record. Failure by you to provide some or all of the information may result in delay in processing or denial of this claim and/or application.

PAPERWORK BURDEN DISCLOSURE NOTICE

Public reporting burden for the collection of information titled Claims for National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) is estimated to average 6 hours per response. The burden estimate includes the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and submitting these forms. You are not required to respond to this collection of information unless a currently valid OMB control number and expiration date is displayed in the upper right corner of the these forms. Send comments regarding the accuracy of the burden estimate and suggestions for reducing the burden to: Information Collections Management, Department of Homeland Security, Federal Emergency Management Agency, 500 C Street, S.W., Washington, DC 20472, Paperwork Reduction Project (1660-0005). NOTE: Do not send your completed form to this address.
